

Fun Adventures with the DCTA Safety Kids

Coloring Book

The DCTA Safety Kids are role models for transit safety. They demonstrate that using DCTA services is fun, but that it's also important to be safe when traveling on a bus, train or the A-train Rail Trail. When you follow transit safety rules, you prevent accidents and injuries.

Hi, I'm JR, one of the DCTA Safety Kids.

My sister Mari and I like to ride our bikes on DCTA's A-train Rail Trail and watch the trains go by. I always wear a helmet when I'm riding a bike.

Hi, I'm Mari, a DCTA Safety Kid. I'm JR's sister.

I like to ride my bike, too! I always ride with both hands on the handlebars.

Hi, I'm Nicky, a DCTA Safety Kid.

I like to use DCTA services to get where I need to go, such as the park to see my friends!

Remember:

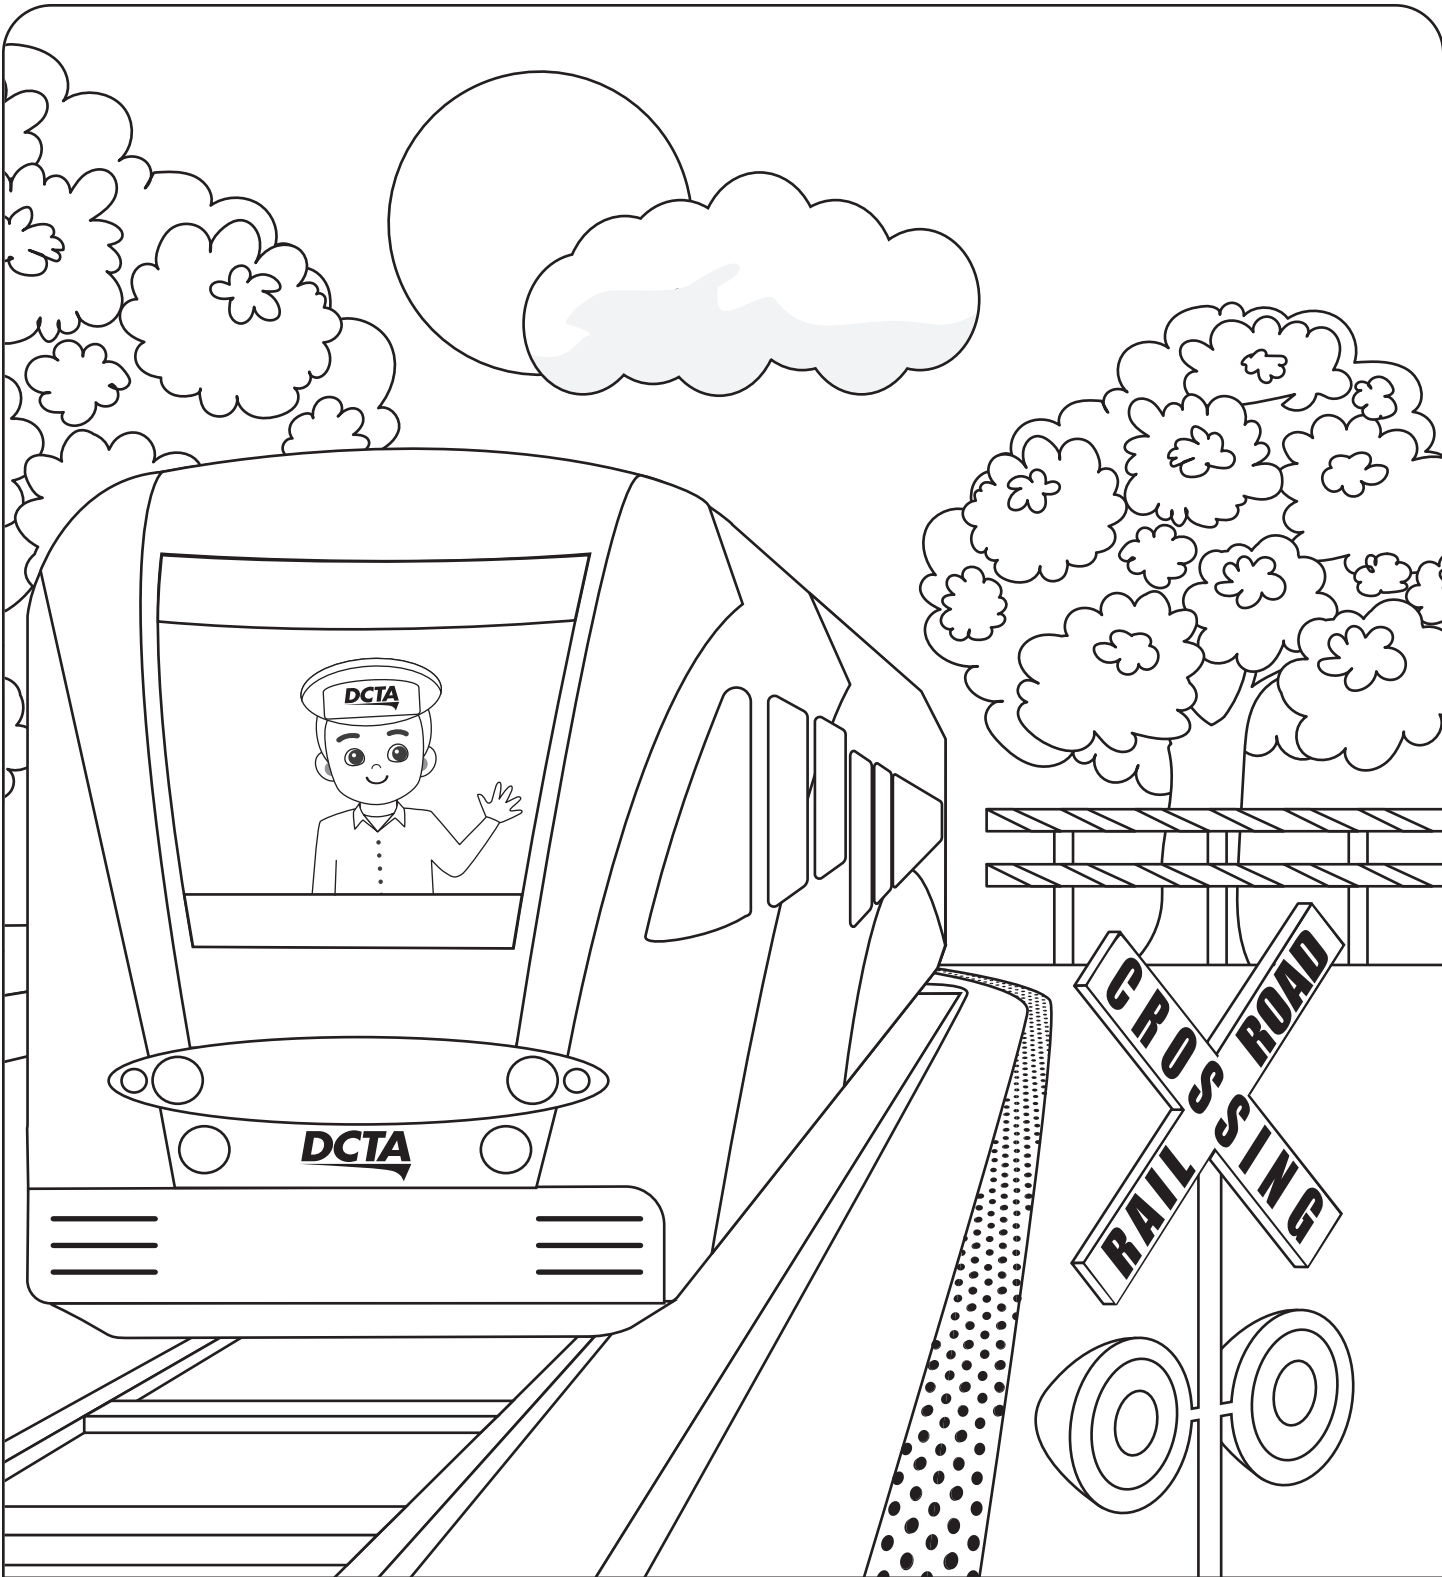

Wheels yield to heels! If you're on a bike, scooter, or skates, always yield to those on foot.

Safety Tip:

When you want to pass a person on the rail trail, it's important to give them a heads-up so you don't cause a collision. Simply say "passing" as you approach.
